knowing 'the real deal about God,' then you will love this read. Let's face it, today most folks no longer view spiritual matters the same way their parents or grandparents did. Spirituality and what God means to people and how they identify with him, has changed. Millions also no longer actively take part in the religion they were raised in. The question is why? What happened? Are people running from something or to something? I found it to be the latter. Most people are in their own way, running to something. It is something that by instinct they perceive to be better. That 'better' is

In the end my questions were answered, I found true peace, and I have fully embraced becoming a free and
